

Admin: Frank Martinez

Coming from a background in Radio Production and Management, Frank works behind the scenes as NATHPO's Administrative Assistant. He handles correspondence and outreach along with the rest of the team. He is also responsible for updating and maintaining the NATHPO website, member database, and YouTube channel. Experienced in a multitude of software programs no task is too big or small, as Frank's exposure to many different industries allows him to offer services that stand out amongst his peers. Born to Cuban parents and raised in Florida, Frank is an avid gamer and pet dad who enjoys riding his motorcycle, cooking, gardening and building/repairing things around his house.
